

Capitalize potentiality

Create Success

On the level of management, you will experience a spectrum of challenges like pressure from outside, conflicts, accusations, problems in cooperation or lack of communication. There is potential for improvement, but do not extinguish single flames, extinguish all the fire with the help of Create Success.

Focus of my work

I exclusively act on the level of management, where decisions are necessary and quick solutions are needed. Despite if it is for you personally, or for the organisation. Make the correct steps for success and innovation on time.

Your support and company

Whether as coach, consultant or facilitator, empathy and passion, experience for many years in leading positions as well as thorough education & training make me your partner in delicate scopes to overcome difficult situations.

With experience and tact, with competence and insistence I will support you in word and deed from the start until the realisation of your plans. Use my insights from business, psychology and systemic work for your progress.

My offer

- Systematic analysis of organizations e.g. by means of InnoSparker
- Evaluation of managers
- Identification of reasons for standstill, conflicts and losses
- Actual implementation of solutions
